Special Guest Speaker

Joanie Sompayrac

Info You Should Know to Mitigate Risk in the Sales Tax Environment

- ◆ What is Wayfair vs. South Dakota?
- ◆ What is economic nexus?
- ◆ How does this affect my business?

Joanie Sompayrac holds both undergraduate and graduate degrees in accounting (both from UT-Chattanooga) as well as a law degree from the University of Cincinnati. After several years of practicing law in Cincinnati, Joanie returned to Chattanooga where she is the Judith Finley Stone Alliance Professor of Accounting in the Rollins College of Business at UT-Chattanooga where she has taught for 26 years. She is a licensed CPA in Tennessee and an attorney in Ohio. She has years of experience in taxation, estate planning, and has taught courses in taxation, law, small business and accounting.

Because of her interests in various properties in her hometown, changing implications of the tax law and her love of working with people, Joanie decided real estate would be an excellent way to combine these interests. She earned her real estate license and joined the Chattanooga Property Shop/Keller Williams. She is President of the Accounting and Financial Women's Alliance, Chair of the Finance Council at Holy Spirit Catholic Church, and she coordinates the Ladies of Black Creek Book Club. When she is not working, Joanie enjoys cooking, travelling, reading (at 52-60 books per year), following Alabama football, spoiling her rescue pups Ella & Red and traveling with her husband, Tony Grossi.
