

Farrier Industry Association

Hall of Legends Nomination Criteria & Application

Criteria

- Nomination Forms Must Be Submitted by April 1.
- Nominees must have made outstanding and significant contributions to the Farrier Industry Association and/or American Farrier's Association or a significant period of years as a business owner, farrier and/or sponsor.
- Nominees must have been employed (present or past) by a company in good standing with the FIA for a minimum of 2 years.
- The contributions must have been influential to, and supportive of the growth of one of the FIA or AFA.
- The nominee must be, or if deceased were regarded as having outstanding character.
- Nominee may be living or deceased.
- No set number of nominees to be awarded each year.
- If a member is on the Selection Committee, they cannot be nominated for the Hall of Legends.

Nomination Process

- Submissions must contain a completed nomination form highlighting a compilation of achievements, biographical information, related honors, and supporting documentation to illustrate the contributions of the nominee.
- In addition to a completed nomination form, a minimum of two, and a maximum of four, unique letters of recommendation from different sources are required. These letters may be sent by regular mail or email.
- At least one or two photographs must be included with original nomination form.
- Nominations for Hall of Legends inductees will not be accepted verbally.

Selection Process

- Any FIA member can nominate a person for the Hall of Legends by submitting the listed criteria information to the office.
- Nominees will be screened by the Selection Committee, with emphasis placed on their unselfish contribution to FIA and/or AFA or a Chapter Association and the positive impact they made on the farrier industry rather than only personal achievements.
- Membership in the Hall of Legends is a means of honoring the those distinguished men and women whose leadership and achievements made a positive influence for the farrier industry and is not intended to merely congratulate people for being successful competitors or business owners.
- Deadline for nominations is April 1 of each year, the Selection Committee will determine which candidates will be recommended for induction by May 1.
- New inductees will be approved by the FIA Board of Directors, families will be notified, and Inductees will be formally announced at the FIA Ceremony/Dinner.
- In addition to a completed nomination form, a minimum of two and a maximum of four unique letters of recommendation from different sources are required as well as a photograph of the nominee.
